STATEMENT ON PROPRIETARY COPYRIGHTS

Acting on their own behalf and being the competition Participant or in the name of the competition Participant being their authorized representative within the meaning of the Regulations - in the case of a collective work also in the name of all authors of the competition work, I hereby represent and ensure the Competition Organizer that:

1. The competition work submitted for the Competition constitutes entirely an original work, it does not infringe copyrights of third parties, it is free from any borrowings and there are no other circumstances that could burden the Competition Organizer with liability with respect to third parties on account of using the competition work within the scope indicated in the Regulations. In the event when a third party reports to the Competition Organizer any claims connected with a breach of copyrights, the Competition Participant shall release the Competition Organizer from the liability for all obligations that will arise in this respect.
2. Proprietary copyrights to the competition work have not been transferred to any other person in any respect and no license for using this work has been granted.
3. Proprietary copyrights to the competition work are not encumbered with any rights of third parties and there are no circumstances that would limit or waive the right to use the competition work within the scope indicated in the Regulations.
4. The Competition Participant, by means of entering to the Competition, allows the Competition Organizer for free and unlimited in time and place use of the competition work within the following scope: presentation and first public sharing of the competition work during post-competition exhibitions, the possibility of its reproduction and publication using any technique (including printing, reprographic and digital recording techniques), lending, producing in the manner specified above of copies of the work and their distribution in the form of an exhibition catalog (printed or digital), and also in the Internet. The Competition Participant furthermore agrees to introduce any necessary modifications (e.g. change of format) connected with the publication of the competition work.
5. The Competition Participant confirms the fact of transferring proprietary copyrights and related rights to the competition work in the situations connected with prize award and described in the Competition Regulations.
